ALL TOGETHER WE CAN!

"It all started the day we saw children eating among the rubbish of Phnom Penh dumpsite. We were flabbergasted. We knew our life was about to change. Pour un Sourire d'Enfant (For a Child's Smile) was born."

January 2017 (LUX)

The horrific genocide perpetrated by the Khmer Rouges left the country devastated, a complete breakdown of society, moral values along with systems of social solidarity were lost.

The main victims are the children scavenging on the municipal rubbish dump or street trading, often abused or exploited by traffickers, without food, without health care, without schooling.

Today, even though Cambodia is developing, many children and families are not benefitting.

Reaksmay, school teacher

"When I was small, I used to help my mother to sell snacks or I would sift through rubbish with my friends. I used to be scared of people, but I have grown in confidence. Now I organise tours for tourists."
